

Overview and Instructions

Advocis and The Institute demand that its members and designation holders always act with the utmost professionalism. We take the enforcement of our Code of Professional Conduct very seriously. When someone alleges that an Advocis member or Institute designation holder has violated the Code, we have a formalized disciplinary process in place to investigate such allegations.

This form must be used to report an alleged Code violation and to initiate the disciplinary process. Advocis and The Institute will also accept a written submission that addresses all questions listed on this form.

Please provide all information requested within this form and return to The Institute at the address provided on the last page of this form. Envelopes should be marked PRIVATE & CONFIDENTIAL and to the attention of Carley Desjardins, Director, Institute. This form should be completed by the initiator of this Request For Investigation (RFI).
